BOD Schedules Petition Dates for April Elections

Pictures Will Be Required For Student Candidates

Dick Laine, chairman of the Elections Committee, announced at the Board of Directors meeting Tuesday that students running for Associated Students and class offices may pick up their petitions April 11.

Petitions may be obtained in the Business Office, Hut T-1, and must be returned before noon on April 15. Students are requested to turn in an eight by ten-inch picture of themselves with their petition.

PICTURES DISPLAYED

Laine stated that the pictures are being requested because he is trying to get a large bulletin board placed in front of the faculty huts to display the pictures of everyone running for office. Laine said that by posting these pictures he was "hoping to eliminate confusion among the students as to who was running for which office."

Jack Lynch, advertising manager of the Franciscan, requested that the BOD name April 4, 5, and 6 as Franciscan Week, in order to promote the sales of the yearbook.

WARREN REQUEST

Walter Warren, chairman of the Board of Publications, asked that Lynch's request be routed through the Board of Publications, since the members of the Franciscan staff had shown too little interest in the workings of that board.

President of the ASSFSC, Bob Horn, pointed out that both the editor and advertising manager of the Franciscan were student teaching, hard pressed for time, and had been doing an excellent job of putting out the yearbook.

BOARD DEGENERATE?

Warren stated that he realized this but he didn't want the Board of Publications to degenerate as it had before. He suggested that routing the request through the Board of Publications would be a "gentle way of pointing out the authority" of that board.

Warren's suggestion was incorporated in Dean Wells' motion that a progress report be submitted to the Board of Directors via the Board of Publications following Franciscan Week.

LYNCH RESIGNS

Jack Lynch submitted his resignation from the Board of Governors to Bob Horn. He stated in his letter of resignation that student teaching commitments made it impossible to continue as a member of that board.

Jay Stewart was removed as a member of the Board of Governors, because he has failed to attend the meetings.

CLARIFY AUTHORITY

Walt Warren requested that the BOD clarify the authority of the Board of Publications as publisher of student publications.

Warren stated that at present "there is no solid conception" as to who had final authority. Warren stated that some people feel that the authority was equally divided between the Board of Publications and the publication editors, while others felt that the Board of Publications had superiority.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Warren's motion that the publishers' responsibility for all publication of the ASSFSC shall reside in the Board of Publications was unanimously accepted by the Board of Directors.

1200 Expected For Model U. N. Conference Here

San Francisco State, in a little more than a month, will play host to the largest student conference in the world, the Model United Nations.

There will be some 1200 delegates and advisors representing almost 100 colleges in the Western United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Western Canada, and Mexico.

The Model U. N. is a mock conference of the United Nations and is planned, sponsored, and operated by the participating students. Agendas are planned to center discussion on current world problems, and resolutions are passed with a view toward presenting solutions to some of these difficulties.

This is the fifth year that the Model U. N. has been held. The first conference on the Pacific Coast was held at Stanford in 1951 with 250 delegates attending. The next three conferences were held at USC, UC and UCLA.

FACULTY MEMBERS TO ATTEND ED. MEETING

San Francisco State college will be represented at the California Council on Teacher Education to be held March 31, April 1 and 2 in Santa Barbara.

Those representing the college will be Dr. Fred Wilhelms, chairman, Education division; Dr. Alfred Jensen; and Dr. Joe Smith, director of placement.

Chess Tournament To Begin April 4

Sponsored by the Recreation Class 73.1, a chess tournament will begin April 4 and is open to all students and faculty.

Positions on the ladder tournament will be decided in accordance with the order in the Gator Swamp.

Advancements may be made by challenging either of the two preceding players on the sign-up list. If successful in the challenge, the winner may take his place on the ladder.

Deadline for sign-ups is April 1. Additional information may be obtained in the Gator Swamp.

Eight Faculty Members Granted Year's Leave

President J. Paul Leonard announced recently that eight faculty members have been granted sabbatical leaves during 1955-56.

Those granted leaves are: Dr. Hugh C. Baker, overseas student advisor; Dr. Jerome H. Rothstein, special education; Dr. Leonard W. Ascher, business; Mrs. Richard Glyer, recreation; Dr. Walter R. Hacker, social science; Dr. Robert J. Stollberg, natural science; Dr. Stanley W. Morse, chairman, natural science; and Mrs. Florence H. Stephenson, co-ordinator, women's physical education.

Qualifications Announced for Spring Primaries

Petitions for candidacy for the Associated Student and class offices may be obtained at the Business Office, Hut T-1, beginning April 11. Primary elections will be held April 21 and 22.

Statements of qualification, the signed petition, and an eight by ten-inch picture of the candidate must be submitted to the office no later than April 15. Campaigning may begin no earlier than 7 a. m., April 18.

ONE-YEAR TERM

All student body and class officers, with the exception of the Freshman class, will be chosen to serve for a period of one year.

A change in this year's election is the inclusion, for the first time, of the representatives-at-large from the Freshman class. Previously, the representatives were elected in the special election for Freshman class officers in the fall.

QUALIFICATIONS

Qualifications for the candidates are the following: They must be members of the ASSFSC, have an over-all grade point average of 1.0, and be thoroughly acquainted with the Constitution and By-Laws of the ASSFSC.

Students desiring to run for student body president, vice president, secretary, or treasurer must have completed at least 60 units by the end of this semester. For the office of Activities Commissioner, at least 45 units must be completed.

FOUR OVER 60 UNITS

Four students will be elected as representatives-at-large over 60 units, one of which may be a graduate student. Two representatives will be chosen with over 32 units, and two with under 32 units.

A bulletin board containing the pictures of all the candidates is to be placed at the edge of the walk in front of the faculty huts facing the Business-Social Science building.

Voting machines will be located in front of the library, and in the foyer of the Redwood Room of the College Union. The polls will be open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. on the days of the primary and final elections, the latter being held on April 28 and 29.

Dick Laine, elections chairamn, expressed hope for at least a 30 per cent vote increase over previous elections, and urges the entire student body to vote.

'Torch Bearers' Presented by Players' Club

"The Torch Bearers," a satire by George Kelly, was presented last night by the Players' Club. It was the first performance of the play's six-day run.

It will be presented in the Little Theatre March 25, 26, 31, and April 1 and 2, at 8:30 p. m.

The comedy features the antics of Mrs. Pampinelli, "new theatre director" of a community little theatre group.

The production is under the direction of Dr. J. Fenton McKenna, executive director of the college Drama department.

General admission is 90 cents and student admission, 60 cents.

Newman Club Holds 'Day of Recollection'

Healy's Resignation Takes an Able Leader

It is difficult for those associated with student activities of any kind to reconcile themselves to the fact that there will be a new occupant of the office of Administrator of Student Affairs next fall.

The resignation of Jack Healy, who has held the position since 1952, leaves a vacancy of considerable magnitude. His shoes will be difficult to fill.

The Golden Gater agrees with the sentiments of student body treasurer LeVell Holmes: "Because of Mr. Healy's long experience at S. F. State as a student, student body officer, part-time teacher, and administrator of student affairs, I feel that we will never get anyone who works as well with the students as Jack has done."

Familiarity with the school and its problems is not the only attribute Mr. Healy has shown in his capacity as administrator of student affairs. His friendship with the students, his ability as an administrator, and his interest in the problems of the Associated Students have made him something of an institution at San Francisco State. As both an administrator and as a person, he will be sorely missed.

Mr. Healy has announced his intention to return to teaching on a full-time basis. The Golden Gater congratulates his future students on their good fortune, and wishes an able administrator the best of luck.

CREATIVE ARTS

'Crucible' Continues Run at Workshop

By ROBERT M. KLANG

The Actor's Workshop of the San Francisco Drama Guild and the plays of Arthur Miller seem to do quite well together. Last year it was a shattering performance of "Death of a Salesman" and now it is a brilliant production of "The Crucible."

The Workshop, which is headed by San Francisco State faculty members Jules Irving and Herbert Blau, has had its week-end performances of "The Crucible" at its 37 Elgin Street auditorium attended by full-house audiences since the opening night last December.

This play has as its subject the Massachusetts witch hunts of the late Seventeenth Century and it is half surprising to "feel" a great similarity between this aspect of Puritanism, as presented by Miller, and the ideas and actions of those who would today "purify." There are of course no direct implications of this sort of drama, but the play is too timely.

Robert Ross directs the performance and Ray Fry, Priscilla Pointer, Jules Irving, Robert Haswell, and Najean Cherry play leading roles as Reverend John Hale, Abigail Williams, John Proctor, Reverend Parris, and Mary Warren, respectively.

BRENNER PRESENTS CONCERT APRIL 25

On April 25 at 8:30 p. m. San Francisco State's master pianist will present his Spring Concert in the Main Auditorium. Mr. Vladimir Brenner has given numerous concerts on the campus and they have indeed been well received by the large crowds which have neard Brenner's music.

Among the compositions Mr. Brenner will play are: Scarlatti's "Allegro Spirituoso," Beethhoven's "Rondo A Capriccio" (Op. 129), Medtner's "Fairy Tale," Liszt's "Mephisto Waltz," Chopin's "Nocturne" (Op. 27 No. 2), and Scriabine's "Etude" (Op. 2 No. 1).

Admissions to the concert are 60 cents for students and 90 cents for the general public.

Boiler Room Letters

Past vs. Present

Reply to Miss Marcelle Aymeric: "Many American Negroes from the South could tell stories that would make Mr. Belaid's sound like a benign children's fairy tale."

I just wonder if the writer is aware that the above describes a past incident while that of Mr. Belaid concerns a present situation. It is not my intention to delve into the liberalism of any colonial power since the word "liberal" bears various conotations and its meaning therefore becomes more subjective than it is objective. However, I hope sentimentalism is not carrying the writer too far.

It is evident that the writer is not an Algerian. Her relation to the French, therefore, disqualifies her to be an arbiter to any controversy between the French and Algerians. I do not at all dispute the statistical data of the writer, but I wonder, if being as observant as the writer seems to be, if she has not been aware of the so-called "book truths," which do not hold water in actuality. Remember that only the man with ill-fitted shoes knows exactly where it hurts, and he alone is the authority in describing the degree of his misery.

Speaking of "blood shed" in the new "underdeveloped" self-governing areas, the writer seems to have forgotten that it took a civil strife to build today's America. Yet evidences are not lacking about the incidence of internal chaos in the histories of the "Great Powers" of today.

If the writer is pro-colonialism, take this tip: "Start speculating in some other plants because the hour-glass of colonialism on this planet is fast running out.'" The sun is setting fast. For the benefit of those who may not know, Algeria is in North Africa, and Nigeria is in West Africa.

NOTHING

(The Sum Total of This Column's Worth)

By HANK CUNNINGHAM

Word reached me that a gap had appeared in the ranks of State's diamond machine (baseball, that is). It was, according to "Snoop" my trusty news source, a serious gap; one that must be filled lest our gallant ball team disintegrate from within.

For a more detailed explanation of this tragic plight, "Snoop" directed me to one Vince Rafello, manager of the local nine.

Vince Rafello, Baseball Manager

After a lengthy search I finally came face to face with Mr. Rafello. A broad-shouldered, powerfully-built man, Rafello fixed his penetrating gaze on me as I introduced myself. "I received a report that the managerial duties presently burdening your broad shoulders are too extensive even for a man of your caliber," I said in a healthy whisper. "It was also reported that you might be persuaded to accept the aid of another baseball lover in this noble task. Do you have anything to say on this matter?"

Rafello's strong right arm flashed forward quickly and his massive hand clutched my shoulder with a vise-like grip.

Help Needed to Lighten Burden

Slowly, ever so slowly, a faint smile forced the corners of his weather toughened lips upward. After what seemed an eternity, Rafello heaved a deep sigh, relaxed his grip on my shoulder and in a forceful voice that cracked the air like thunder, replied . . . "HELP!!

"I'm only one guy and I'm expected to arrange transportation for the team, keep track of the equipment, rack bats, chase baseballs, keep score and last, but not least, phone in the results of the games to the newspapers. I need HELP!"

To this we hurriedly agreed. Anyone who would like to see a lot of baseball (plus quite a bit of good old California scenery) will be greeted with open arms. See Coach Boyle or Vince Rafello for the job.

Gators, Aggies Play Twin Bill Tomorrow

Three ball games are on tap for Gator fans during the next four days. Tomorrow, Coach Dick Boyles' crew faces the Cal Aggies in a double-header which begins at 1 p. m. Next Tuesday, Alameda Naval Air Station invades the local campus. All three games will be played on the lower field at State.

The California Aggies are league opponents of SFSC, but tomorrow's games will not be counted as conference contests. The two teams meet on April 9 at Davis in a pair that will be counted in the standings.

The three games coming up should prove somewhat revealing. So far this season, the Gators have been heavy hitters but have been plagued in the pitching department. Coach Boyle hopes that Gary Kenny will boost State in that vital department. Kenny came out late for the team.

Booker Jackson, State infielder, still has an injured knee. Last week, Coach Boyle moved Jackson from shortstop to first base because of the knee.

GOLFERS HOST THREE TEAMS AT SHARP PARK

San Francisco State's golf squad will play host in a four-way match today at Sharp Park. Teams entered in the match include Cal Aggies of Davis, Humboldt State and Sacramento State.

Tennismen Clash With COP Tigers

Renewing their competition between the two teams, for the first time in four years, the San Francisco State netmen will meet the College of Pacific Tigers in a tennis match on Friday, March 25. It will be the first home match for the Gators.

The Gators' full team will participate in the matches with Stan Altschuler and Sam Lipman holding down the number one and two spots. In the supporting positions will be John Gardner, Dave Richardson, Gene Ravgleoli, Mike Blass, Norman Sui, Doug Felt, and Aldo Fiammengo.

This week at Berkeley, under the auspices of San Francisco State, Stan Altschuler and Sam Lipman will compete in both the singles and doubles of the NCIC matches.

Coach Farmer declared that the Gators have a very good chance against C.O.P. because the team is 25 per cent stronger than last year with the power situated in the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth positions.

Since the squad has this strength, he added, the Gators should make a very good showing in the conference matches which will be held at Chico May 13 and 14.

Swimmers Dunk Cal Aggies, 68-16

San Francisco State's swim squad downed the Cal Aggies with a smashing 68-16 victory last Friday afternoon when they met at Davis. The two teams will meet again in the local pool today at 4 p. m.

The State swimmers took first place in all events, including both relays, plus a number of second and third places.

Team captain Wally Macomber won the back stroke in his best time of 2:42.4.

Jules Voerge was high point man of the meet with 11 3-4 points, earned by winning both the 100 and 200-yard freestyle, and for his part of the relay. Sam Citron won both the 220 and 440-yard freestyle races.

The 1955 track season begins on March 26 at 1:30 p. m., with a triangular meet here against Sacramento State and Mather Field.

HERB DOWER'S

Golden Murals

"How to Develop Interest" was the principal topic discussed at the intramural team managers meeting held last week. The coaching staff, with the co-operation of several student managers, are going all out to present their program to the students but are being met with only moderate support.

Several new ideas were discussed which are aimed a developing better student participation. "Player of the Week" awards, and better publicity for the program, seem to be two possible solutions.

PICTURE GALLERY

While on the subject of publicity, the intramural "picture gallery" should interest SFSC students. Hightlights of the sports events are photographed and posted on the bulletin board in the gym. Winning teams and winning individuals, as well as the "also-rans," are presented in this art display.

The bulletin board also has a complete listing of league standings, schedules, and all the sports sign-up sheets. Sign-up sheets for badminton, track and field, golf, and wrestling are still posted on the intramural bulletin board. All you have to do to participate is to sign your name to the list, then check the board every once in a while to see when you are participating. It's as easy as that!

GOLF TOURNEY SOON

The golf tourney is open to both men and women and will begin as soon as sign-ups are completed.

A poster contest will soon begin and everyone is eligible to enter. Competition will start as soon as enough students sign up.

Passing Shots: Alpha Phi Alpha dropped out of the speedball league, leaving only a "bye" in its place. An eight-team, three-man basketball league, in the open class, began play last week.

State Meets TI In Local Pool

The Navy's collection of top swimmers at Treasure Island will compete in the San Francisco State pool next Tuesday night.

After a close meet with the Gators March 16, they will attempt to even the score against the offenders. State is the first and so far the only team to beat them, and the Gators are at present undefeated.

Bob McKenzie Sees a French Movie; Even the Balcony Left

It seems to be the thing to see foreign movies these days. I took in a French film the other night, and believe me this thing must have been made before movies started getting better than ever. The picture was so bad even the couples in the balcony walked out. It was a very unusual French movie, in that the boy and girl were married.

In the opening scene we find Lulu, the heroine, seated on her veranda, eating a box of chocolate-covered clams. She is dressed in a casual gown that she bought at 50 per cent off, and that's just the way she is wearing it. Comes a knock at the door and Pierre, her husband enters. The following dialogue is freely translated:

Lulu: Darling!

Pierre: Baby!

Lulu: Darling, do you love me?

Pierre: Yeah.

L: Do you think my eyes are like stars?

P: Yeah.

L: Do you think my teeth are like pearls?

P: Yeah.

L: Gee, honey, you say the prettiest things.

P: Uh-huh.

L: Well, so don't just stand there. Take me in your arms and press my lips.

P: What for? Are they wrinkled?

L: Oh, Pierre! You're so unromantic. You used to say that there was something about me you couldn't help but love.

P: Yeah, but that's all spent now. What's for dinner?

(The door opens again, and Mimi, the landlady, enters. She is attired in a low-cut gown with a turtle-neck slip. It clashes beautifully with her patent leather track shoes. Mimi is in love with Pierre.)

Mimi: Pierre, my darling, my sweetheart.

Pierre: Hit the road, broad.

Mimi: Pierre, why are you so cold? Just yesterday you told me you thought I had a gorgeous figure?

Lulu: Pierre is my man, Mimi. You leave him alone.

Mimi: Shaddup, bag, or I'll clobber ya!

(The girls go into one of those catfights in which they tear off each others' clothes. Pierre is bored by this and goes out for a beer.)

This sort of thing goes on for two hours, at the end of which time all three commit suicide. The picture does not end there, however. What is a French movie without a nude bathing scene?

There was no place for one in the plot, so they just stuck it on at the end. The scene opens on three girls undressing by a pond. Just as things get interesting, a train comes along and obstructs the view.

By the time it has passed, the girls are already in the water. I sat through the picture twice, and I'm going again tonight. Sooner or later that train is going to be late.

Trackmen Open Season With Three-Way Meet

Track season officially opens tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when San Francisco State college plays host to Mather Field and Sacramento State college on the Gator track.

Coach Ray Kaufman stated that many "promising newcomers" have joined the returning lettermen who won the Far Western Conference title last year. Coach Kaufman also commented that his team looked pretty good at last Tuesday's time trials with San Francisco City college on the State track.

In spite of the driving wind, a number of good times were turned in. Warren Fairbanks won the two-mile race in 10 minutes, 59 seconds. Jack Landers looked good in both hurdles, as did Bob Blevings.

In other races, Tom Leonard and Milt Kelly also did well. The pole vaulters went over 12 feet 6 inches.

Coffee-Consuming Campus Keeps Cafeteria Constantly Crowded

By BILL DRURY

Not included in the latest Gallup Poll, nor in the 1955 Pocket Almanac, but nevertheless interesting, is the report that the College Union is doing quite well in maintaining an average coffee-consuming record.

During the course of a single day, approximately 5000 people (students, faculty and "radicals") pass through the food lines in the cafeteria. The same day, our statistician tells us, 4000 cups of coffee are sipped, gulped, or pondered over, with 2000 sharing cream. A good estimate would have 2500 cups sprinkled, in various degrees, with sugar.

Take five days a week, multiply by four weeks a month, multiply again by 4½ months to a semester, subtract 10 (in round numbers) for holidays and good fishing, multiply (once more) by 400, and you have 320,000 cups of coffee for an average semester.

Keeping up with the figures, at 12:04 p. m., the "caf" is full: 150 people in the grill room, and 490 in the large dining room; 98 places are also available in the faculty refectory.

The report further certifies that appetites are normal for the State clan. Spaghetti and meat-balls, an All-American dish, rates number one spot on the menu at dinner time, with hamburgers on buns a close second. Dessert favors apple pie. It figures.

Fountain sales depend on the temperature outside. As the mercury rises, vanilla, chocolate, and strawberry cones sell as fast as cokes. Rocky Road is rapidly gaining on these standard "types," though.

Salads are preferred by ladies on diets. Club sandwiches fill the bill for snacks in the mid-afternoon. And, always, there is the coffee.

As Mrs. Lehan, of the Union staff, says, "Some people go to all the buildings, but all the people come here."

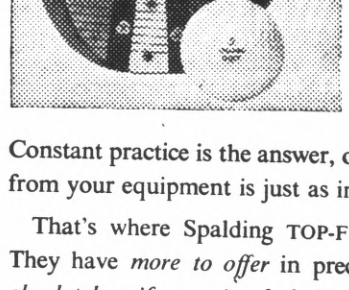
WHO ARE THE "TOP-FLITE" GOLFERS ON YOUR CAMPUS?



If you've watched them on the course, you've probably thought: "Boy, if I could just get my game down like that!"

Constant practice is the answer, of course, but getting the best from your equipment is just as important, too.

That's where Spalding TOP-FLITE® clubs have the edge. They have more to offer in precision balance that gives an absolutely uniform swing-feel with every club in the matched set.

That's the secret of Spalding SYNCHRO-DYNED® clubs. And, it will pay off for you from the first round. You'll make the same shots with new uniformity. The perfect balance of these clubs lets you swing through the ball with confidence. Without "choking-up" or "compensating." You get the ball away cleaner, longer, and with more shot control.

These are the clubs that have lowered handicaps by as much as ⅓: Spalding SYNCHRO-DYNED TOP-FLITE clubs. Your Golf pro has them now. And, now's the time for you to start playing better golf.
